

Ghana 2023 - Itinerary

Day One: Complimentary Hotel Hospitality Suite opens for early arrivals to Washington, D.C.

Group meets at Washington, DC Dulles Airport.

Evening: Flight departs from Washington, D.C. Dulles Airport.

Games and good times during our 10-hour flight.

Day Two: Arrive at Kotoka International Airport in Ghana.

Transportation from Airport to Hotel.

Relax and Recuperate from the flight.

Welcome Dinner and Cocktails.

Day Three: Accra City Tour – W.E.B. DuBois Pan African Center and his final resting place. We will ride by the International Square on our way to the Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park and Mausoleum | Shopping at the Makola Open Market. After our busy scenic day, we will return to the Hotel, freshen up and get dressed to impress and spend the evening at a popular Accra night spot.

Day Four: We are off to a full (and emotional day) as we visit Cape Coast Slave Castle and the Elmina Slave Castle. On the way we will see the “Slave River” where our ancestors were washed before confinement in slave dungeons to await departure to the Americas. At Cape Coast Castle, we will visit the “Door of No Return.” Afterwards we’ll have lunch in Cape Coast and head over to the Kakum National Park.

Day Five: Morning & Early Afternoon: Sun & Brunch Event.

Late afternoon on your own. Suggestion: Take some time and visit the Accra Mall.

Evening: Game Night and Singles Mixer Event.

Day Six: Grab your bathing suits and beach gear and head out to the famous and entertaining Labadi Beach for a day at the beach. Enjoy horseback riding, lounge in the sun, hang out at the bar, which includes hookah bars in the smoking areas. At sundown it turns into night party.

Day Seven: Optional: Day Tour to Kumasi – Home of Ashanti and your private naming ceremony.

Day Eight: Day on your own | Prepare for return to the USA.

Evening: Farewell Dinner and Group “All-White” Photo.

Day Nine: Meeting with representatives of the Ghana Investment Promotion Center for potential business opportunities.

Late hotel check-out - Complimentary Hotel Hospitality Suite opens.

Evening - Depart for flight home at 8 pm.

Day Ten: Morning Arrival – Washington, D.C.
